CHAPTER 322.

AN ACT relative to the proceeds of the sale of swamp and overflowed lands in the counties of Sauk and Columbia.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

Proceeds of sale of swamp lands to go to the counties.

SECTION 1. The proceeds from the sale of all swamp and overflowed lands now belonging to the state, and of all lands which may hereafter be selected in lieu of swamp and overflowed lands hereafter or heretofore sold by the government of the United States, in the counties of Sauk and Columbia, together with all sums of money due, or to become due, as a balance of the purchase money on contract for the sale of such swamp and overflowed lands in said counties, and all sums of money received, or to be hereafter received by the state from the United States, on account of swamp and overflowed lands in said counties, sold by the United States since the passage of the act granting the same to the state, shall belong to, and shall be paid over to said counties respectively, at the time provided by law for the payment to counties of the funds derived from the sale of swamp and overflowed lands. All moneys derived from swamp and overflowed lands lying and being in the town of Fairfield, Sauk county, apportioned to the county of Sauk under the provisions of this act, shall be used in the construction of a levee in the town of Fairfield, in said county; and all moneys derived from swamp and overflowed lands lying and being in the town of Caledonia, Columbia county, apportioned to the county of Columbia, shall be used in the construction of a levee in the town of Caledonia, in said county; provided, that this act shall not be construed to affect any money due on contracts for lands sold, which have been set apart for the support of the normal schools.

SECTION 2. All acts or parts of acts conflicting with the provisions of this act, are hereby repealed.

SECTION 3. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.

Approved April 3, 1883.
